

student activity 1

Name _____ Date _____

Imagine that you are creating a lantern to release into the sky to celebrate the end of the Chinese New Year. Using words, pictures and symbols, design a lantern that represents you. Remember to include your traditions—old and new—that you will carry into the New Year.

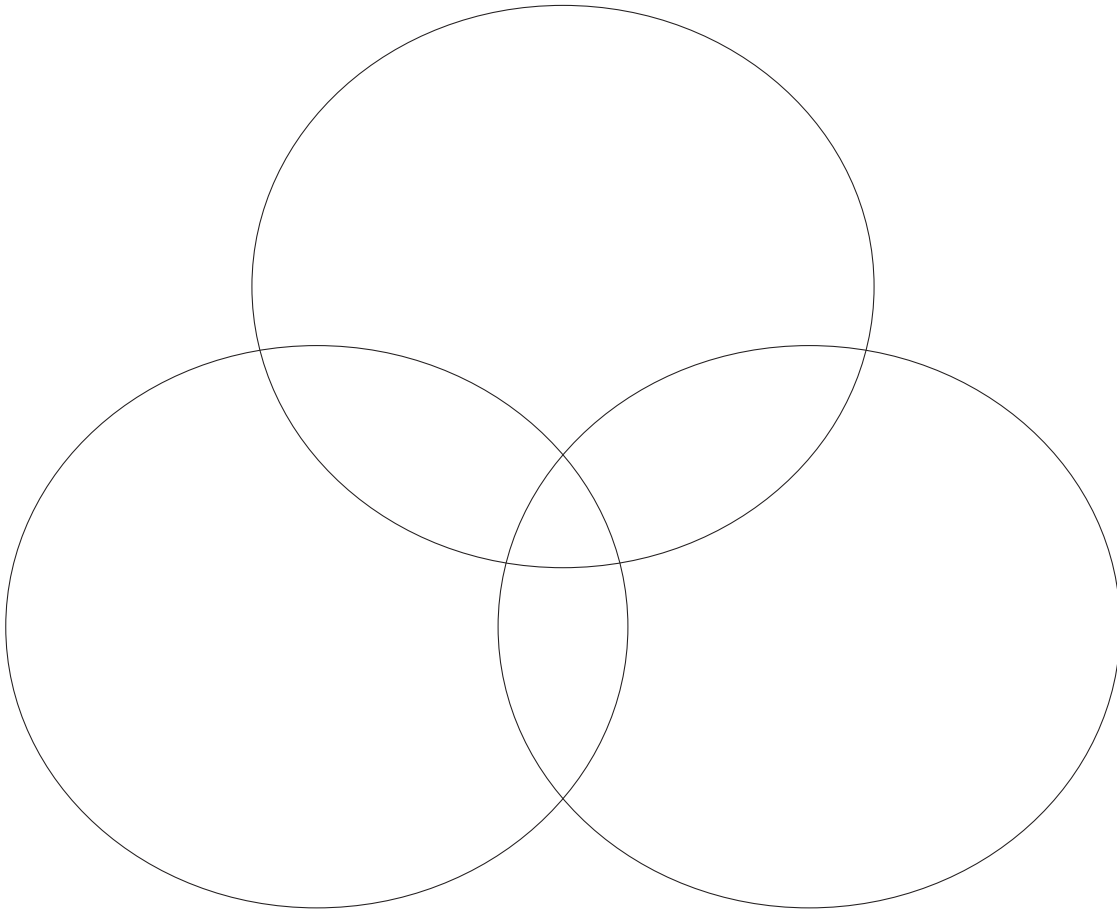

student activity 2

新年快樂

Happy New Year!

Name _____ Date _____

Use the Venn diagram to compare Chinese New Year traditions, your traditions, and traditions of someone you know. Write 3 traits for each and decide which traits are common. Analyze these traditions and describe why it is important to learn about other traditions.

Why is it important to learn about other traditions?
