Creating a Junk Percussion Band

Name ___________________________________________ Date ______________________

Band Name: ______________________________________

Band Members: ____________________________________

List the items your Junk Band will use: How many different ways can you play the different pieces of percussion?

1. _____________________________________________

2. _____________________________________________

3. _____________________________________________

4. _____________________________________________

5. _____________________________________________

How are you going to play out your rhythm (e.g. beating, tapping, scraping, body percussion)?

_________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________

As a group, how can you make your junk band performance successful?

_________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________
“Don’t let anyone convince you that you have to conform to society. Whatever your dreams are, pursue them and never waver until you achieve them. Just don’t over think the process. Go for it and believe in it. If you believe, you’ll keep going. Nothing is guaranteed, but don’t give up.”
– Band Members, Recycled Percussion in an interview with NJPAC

Recycled Percussion all started with a high school talent show. What dreams do you want to pursue with unwavering persistence? How do you plan to achieve your dreams?