

student activity 1

Name _____

Date _____

My Culture, My Story

You now have the opportunity to brainstorm which cultural elements comprise your story. What makes you who you are? Complete the bubble map below with as many elements as you can think of – there are no wrong answers!

student activity 2

Name _____ Date _____

Black Popular Music Timeline

Make a Joyful Noize is grounded in Black culture and music. Explore the genres and subgenres of Black popular music using Carnegie Hall's "Timeline of African American Music". Spend some time exploring and experimenting with the timeline. Then, choose four genres from the timeline and complete the prompts below for each.

Genre One: _____ Years: _____

Category (circle one): Sacred Secular Secular Instrumental

Themes: _____

Musical features: _____

Instruments: _____

Important facts about the genre: _____

In what ways did you see/hear this genre in Make a Joyful Noize?: _____

Genre Two: _____ Years: _____

Category (circle one): Sacred Secular Secular Instrumental

Themes: _____

Musical features: _____

Instruments: _____

Important facts about the genre: _____

In what ways did you see/hear this genre in Make a Joyful Noize?: _____

student activity 2

Name _____ Date _____

Black Popular Music Timeline continued

Make a Joyful Noize is grounded in Black culture and music. Explore the genres and subgenres of Black popular music using Carnegie Hall's "Timeline of African American Music". Spend some time exploring and experimenting with the timeline. Then, choose four genres from the timeline and complete the prompts below for each.

Genre Three: _____ Years: _____

Category (circle one): Sacred Secular Secular Instrumental

Themes: _____

Musical features: _____

Instruments: _____

Important facts about the genre: _____

In what ways did you see/hear this genre in Make a Joyful Noize?: _____

Genre Four: _____ Years: _____

Category (circle one): Sacred Secular Secular Instrumental

Themes: _____

Musical features: _____

Instruments: _____

Important facts about the genre: _____

In what ways did you see/hear this genre in Make a Joyful Noize?: _____
